Reds Reject West's Hopes for Meeting on Germany

LABOR MERGER BELIEVED PERILED BY REVOLT LED BY FORMER C. I. O. HEAD

By NORMAN WALKER

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—AFL-CIO leaders emerged with an uneasy truce today after a revolt led by Walter Reuther against AFL-CIO President George Meany's one-man direction of federation policies.

It wasn't exactly clear who had won. But Reuther and other leaders of the former CIO felt their voices would be reflected more in the policies of the merged, 14-million-member organization.

For one thing, it looks now as if the Washington meeting the AFL-CIO is planning to underline America's unemployment problem will be along more spectacular lines as urged by Reuther. It probably won't be the mass march of unemployed Reuther first proposed, but it will likely be more of a show than the strictly legislative conference of union officials Meany advocated.

The revolt had boiled for a week behind the scenes of the annual winter meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council. It began when Meany—head of the old AFL—chided Reuther—head of the old CIO—for holding a session of the Economic Policy Committee while Meany was delayed in Washington by a cold. Meany was reported angry at Reuther's unemployment march proposal.

Reuther, chairman of the economic committee, retorted that Meany had never attended economic policy meetings. Anyway the red-haired Auto Workers Union chief said, as chairman he should have a relatively free hand at mapping economic policy, at least in the committee stage. Reuther said if he couldn't run the economic committee, he might as well quit the post.

Reuther was backed by James Carey, No. 2 man in the federation's CIO faction. The meeting got so hot that Meany ordered Carey to leave his seat. The scrappy Carey refused.

Magazine Disagrees With Kennedy Comment

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—A national Catholic weekly magazine disagrees with Sen. John Kennedy's statement about the separation of a public official's religious beliefs and his governmental duties.

The March 7 issue of Ave Maria quotes Kennedy as saying: "Whatever one's religion in private life may be, for the officeholder nothing takes precedence over his oath to uphold the Constitution and all its parts—including the First Amendment and the strict separation of church and state."

The magazine's editorial said that "to relegate your conscience to your 'private life' is not only unrealistic, but dangerous as well."

BIRMINGHAM DENIES BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Applications of seven Negroes for transfer to white schools have been rejected. No action has been taken on two other applicants.

Six applicants were turned down, school Superintendent Banks said Monday, because he felt transfer would not be in the best interest of the children involved.

Chapman, an avowed segregationist, was the leader of a group of legislators who a few years ago caused a Negro girl to be dropped from a University of Texas light opera presentation.

Bishop William C. Martin said he was confident the legislators' statements "had no basis in fact."

Vice President Lanier Cox of the University of Texas said the administration had no knowledge of atheism being taught at the university.

Vice President Sterling Wheeler of SMU said there would be no immediate official comment.

New State Police Head Maps Plans for Study of Force

HARRISBURG (AP)—Frank G. McCartney today mapped plans for a detailed study of the state police force of which he is about to become commissioner.

The 50-year-old Lansford veteran of 28 years in police and other investigative work received unanimous Senate confirmation to the $20,000-a-year post after month-long Republican opposition faded Monday.

"A complete and thorough study of the department will be made," McCartney said shortly after he was confirmed. "It is my aim to make the Pennsylvania state police the best force in the nation."

The new commissioner will take the oath of office Wednesday afternoon, succeeding Col. Earl J. Henry who retired Jan. 20 when Gov. Lawrence was inaugurated. McCartney was the only one of Lawrence's Cabinet appointments which had been held up by the GOP-controlled Senate.

Opposition to the appointment was led by Sen. Edward J. Kessler (R-Lancaster) who maintained McCartney lacked leadership experience. "I feel it is too bad he (McCartney) has not gone through the ropes a little more," Kessler said. "Of course, he may turn out to be the best man we ever had."

Flaming Bluish Object Excites Michigan Areas

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—A flaming bluish green object streaked over Michigan about 6:30 a.m. today.

State troopers sighted it traveling from east to west. Radio stations had calls from excited persons who also saw the object.

Two operators in the control tower of the Grand Rapids Airport in western Michigan said they believed it was a meteorite. The operators, John Moore and Robert Boylan, said the object also was sighted at airport control towers in Chicago and Madison, Wis.

"It was a dandy," Moore and Boylan agreed. "The best meteorite we ever saw. It must have been a good sized one because it looked like it was just northwest of Grand Rapids going from east to west. It was shooting off sparks before it appeared to disintegrate."

The sky was clear just before dawn and observers got a good look.

Radio station WHGR in Houghton Lake received a call from a man at nearby Roscommon who said, "It scared hell out of me."

Miles Jacobs of Merritt, Mich., in a call to WHGR, described the flaming object as the size of a small plane flying fairly close to the earth.

Motion To Acquit Rep. Green Being Heard in Rebuttal

By BILL GIBSON

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—The government gives its rebuttal today on motions to acquit Rep. William J. Green (D-Pa.) and three remaining co-defendants in the Tobyhanna Army Depot conspiracy trial.

U. S. District Judge Frederick V. Pollmer is not expected to hand down any decision on the motions before Wednesday. The jury reconvenes after an eight day recess called at the conclusion of the government's case.

Three other defendants were excused Monday when government attorneys told the court they had examined the evidence during the recess and would not oppose motions for acquittal.

The seven men were indicted on charges of conspiring to defraud the government in the construction of the depot. Green was accused of receiving $10,000 from one of the defendant-contractors, and commissions on performance bonds from others. He has an insurance office in Philadelphia. McGinchey allegedly delivered the (Turn to Page Ten)

Search Continues For Missing Doctors

LITTLETON, N.H. (AP)—A faint radio message today gave searchers hope that two doctors missing on a plane flight are still alive somewhere in the rugged, snow-covered White Mountains area.

Ground and air search teams today concentrated their hunt for Dr. Ralph E. Miller, 60, and Dr. Robert E. Quinn, 32, in the eight-mile area between Mt. Agassiz and Franconia Notch.

Dr. Karl Steady, 55, a Laconia osteopathic physician and member of the Civil Air Patrol, reported he received fragments of a wireless signal Monday which read: "Agassiz" and "Notch."

Senate Okays and Sends Back to House Proposal To Break Jam on PIDA Loans

HARRISBURG (AP)—The General Assembly today completed action on a $2,200,000 appropriation intended to break a four month log jam on state loans for industrial development.

The measure went to the desk of Gov. Lawrence who is expected to sign into law before the week is out.

The House speedily voiced its approval to a Senate revision hiking the figure by $350,000.

The Senate had approved the $2,200,000 grant this morning and, within an hour, the House followed through with its okay on the change.

The appropriation is designed to reopen action by the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority on pending loans.

The authority ran out of money some weeks ago. The money will be used to finance the PIDA operations for the balance of the current biennium. Gov. Lawrence already has announced he will ask the Legislature to appropriate 10 million dollars for PIDA operations in the coming biennium.

A half dozen new industries seeking state aid for buildings have been blocked since last fall in their efforts to locate in Pennsylvania because three million dollars in funds voted by the 1957 Legislature ran out.

Commerce Secretary William R. Davlin said PIDA would act almost immediately on these projects after the appropriation is signed into law by Gov. Lawrence.

After Senate action, routine House approval was expected to be given to a Senate amendment that revised the industrial development figure from $1,850,000.

Other legislative developments: State police commissioner Frank G. McCartney, Lansford, 50-year-old former state police detective, will be sworn in as state police commissioner Wednesday.

The Senate confirmed his appointment Monday, after month-long Republican opposition collapsed. The GOP objections were based on what some senators described as McCartney's lack of qualifications.

McCartney immediately promised a complete study of state police operations. "Mine probe—A 10-member legislative committee named two mining engineers to provide technical advice on its proposed investigation of a Luzerne County mine disaster."

The engineers, D. R. Mitchell of the Pennsylvania State University and F. Edgar Kudlich, Kingston, were expected to join the group next week when it begins an on-the-spot probe of the Knox Coal Co. operation at Pittston. Twelve men are still trapped in the pit.

Memphis Mothers Are Aroused Over Student Paddling

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A group of mothers meet with Shelby County school officials today to air their complaints against a school principal who paddled 11 student strikers.

General Sessions Judge Willard Dixon ordered the informal conference after the mothers requested he issue assault and battery warrants against John Barnes, principal of Bartlett High School. Barnes has admitted firmly applying a maple paddle to the seats of 11 boys and said "There are still seven or eight to go." He said the paddlings "nipped in the bud" a direct challenge to school authority.

The trouble started, Barnes said, when he carried out his threat to shut down a "drink machine" if it continued to be jammed with slugs. He estimated about 20 boys tried to organize a student boycott of the school lunchroom and when that failed, left the school without permission. Barnes gave the boycott leaders two choices: take seven licks with the paddle or bring their parents to school. He said 11 of them have preferred the licks so far.

KHRUSHCHEV STILL SAYS REUNIFICATION IS ISSUE FOR STATES THEMSELVES

By HAROLD K. MILKS

Moscow (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, emerging from two days of talks with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, threw cold water today on the West's plan for a four-power meeting on Germany.

Khrushchev told a political rally in the Kremlin that the Soviet Union, the United States, Britain and France cannot discuss German reunification because "this is a question for the two German states themselves."

A four-power meeting at the foreign minister level, as suggested by the West, might increase instead of reduce international tension, Khrushchev declared.

Khrushchev conceded that the four powers could discuss prevention of militarism in West and East Germany. But he then restated the Soviet stand that reunification should be settled only by the Germans themselves.

He also repeated the Soviet proposal for a conference of heads of government of all those nations that waged war against Hitler in World War II to work out a treaty with Germany.

The Western powers rejected this proposal in their recent notes calling for a four-power meeting on Germany at the foreign ministers level.

Khrushchev warned that any violation of the East German borders in the dispute over West Berlin would be considered an act of aggression against the Warsaw Pact powers.

While Khrushchev was speaking in the Kremlin, the visiting Macmillan was sight-seeing. Macmillan called off a hunting trip scheduled for Wednesday, and planned a full day of informal talk with the Soviet leader at the British Embassy's villa outside Moscow.

The sightseeing today was with a purpose, a motor trip 90 miles northeast of Moscow to look over the world's largest atom smasher—the 10-billion-volt synchrotron at the Atomic Research Institute at Dubna.

Among the chief researchers at the institute is Italian-born scientist Bruno Pontecorvo, who slipped out of England in October 1950 to work in the (Turn to Page Ten)

Carter Decides He Erred Hiring Son At $11,873 Year

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Rep. Steven V. Carter D-Iowa says he made a mistake in judgment in putting his 19-year-old college freshman son on his congressional payroll at $11,873 a year, the Des Moines Register said today.

In a copyrighted story from its Washington bureau, the newspaper quoted Carter as saying "I'm afraid I didn't have this thing in very good perspective and I'm going to correct it."

"I've made a mistake of judgment on this matter," the newspaper quoted Carter, "and I am going to adjust it within a few days."

"I've been ill with cancer and Steven has been carrying a lot of the load for me. My illness and the fact I was told that I might not live many weeks probably resulted in my making a mis-judgment as to what I should pay Steve."

The freshman congressman said previously his son, a law student at George Washington University, had the best qualifications of applicants as his chief assistant.

Carter told the Register he had received numerous letters from Iowa and "it is about 60-40 against me."

No Decision on Candidates For Appellate Court Posts

HARRISBURG (AP)—Today is the first day to circulate nominating petitions for the May 19 primary election. But both Republicans and Democrats are still undecided on organization candidates for two appellate court posts.

George I. Bloom, Republican state chairman, was reported ready to call a meeting of GOP slatemakers for early March to slate candidates for places on the state supreme and superior courts.

Democrats, who failed in such an attempt 10 days ago, also were expected to call another session of the policy committee next month to resolve a behind-the-scenes dispute on the Supreme Court candidate.

The decisions must be made before March 16, the last day to file nominating petitions.

Although in agreement on Judge Harry Montgomery of Allegheny County as the Democratic candidate for the Superior Court post, the question of slating Justice Thomas D. McBride for a full 21-year term on the state Supreme Court was still up in the air.

McBride, a Philadelphia Democrat who received an interim appointment last December from former Gov. Leader, has been the butt of some opposition from top-level Democrats.

On the Republican side, Rep. Albert W. Johnson, House GOP floor leader, already has announced his candidacy for the Superior Court. No other Republicans have come forth with similar announcements although Judges Samuel J. Roberts of Erie County and Herbert Mook of Crawford County have been mentioned.

Superior Court Judge J. Colton Wright, Bedford, has said he would seek the GOP nomination for the Supreme Court if he received organization backing.

Try two appellate court seats are the only statewide offices up for election this year.

Future of Dulles Like Responsibility

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was quoted as saying today it "certainly is my responsibility" to determine whether cancer-stricken John Foster Dulles stays on as secretary of state.

The statement carried a possible rebuke to those Congress members who have publicly suggested that Eisenhower ought to name a Cabinet replacement for Dulles. Two who have made such suggestions are Sens. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) and Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn).

Republican congressional leaders quoted Eisenhower after their regular weekly conference with him.

Boy Slain During Teen-Age Fight in Brooklyn Theatre

NEW YORK (AP)—A feud between two teen-ages erupted in violence in the crowded Brooklyn theater district Monday night. One boy was killed and another wounded.

Four boys, captured after a five-block chase, were charged with homicide early today. Dead was Tony Labanchino, 17. John Lombardi, also 17, was shot in the hand.

The four arrested were Carl Cinton, 16, Carlos Reyes, 17; Melvin Torres, 16, and Israel Marvos, 17.

Police said that Labanchino, Lombardi and an unidentified boy with them were members of the "Sands St. Angels." They had been playing a pinball machine in an amusement arcade.

They walked outside and met five youths, members of a rival gang, "the Mau Maus." There had been clashes between the gangs lately, police said.

Suddenly one of the Mau Maus pulled a .22 caliber pistol and fired four times. Two shots struck Labanchino in the face. A third struck Lombardi, and a fourth shattered a window of the amusement building.

Police said the four boys arrested are Puerto Ricans.

GOVERNORS' MEETING

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—A states rights school desegregation plan and a proposed trip to Moscow faced almost certain defeat in today's closing session of the Executive Committee of the National Governors Conference.

President Eisenhower sent John L. Sullivan, regional Civil Defense director, to represent him at the meeting with Lawrence and other federal and state officials.

United Offer for Gifford Building To Be Considered

Jamestown Sun: City Tax Sale Committee members—who buckled under mounting pressure and deferred action on a $12,000 bid for the Gifford Building when they met Feb. 10—are scheduled to consider the offer tonight. They will meet at 7 p. m. at City Hall.

Bids for demolition of the five story city owned structure at 28-36 South Main street will be received at 4 p. m. today in City Clerk Clinton H. Watson's office.

Frank R. Franco, chairman of the Tax Sale Committee, noted at its last meeting that estimates of cost of demolishing the building have ranged from $59,000 and $55,000 to $45,000.

The committee's decision came after Assessor John W. Wheelhouse said he had been asked by Planning Commission Chairman Richard D. Swanson "to hold off a while longer."

A special investigating committee headed by City Councilman Trygve B. Lundahl advocating accepting United Refining Co.'s $12,000 bid for the building. The Warren firm wants to build a filling station on the site.

Mayor Carl F. Sanford said Monday that the committee could take action on the request tonight and ask council to approve the bid.

John Glatz, chairman of the City Zoning Board of Appeals, said Monday that the board has not received a request from the refining company for permission to build the structure on the Gifford site.

"As far as I know no request has been filed with City Clerk Clinton H. Watson," he said. He noted that a filling station could be constructed on the site "at the discretion of the board."

Questions and Answers
Q—I have just entered school under the Korean GI Bill. How long is the usual waiting period before receipt of my first GI allowance check?
A—Normally, about two months. Under the law, you may not be paid until after a month of classroom work is completed, and the law allows VA 20 additional days to process your certificate of attendance and to mail your check.
Q—Is there any deadline for filing a claim for VA disability compensation?
A—There is no deadline. A veteran may apply at any time. However, if an eligible veteran applies within a year from the date of his release from service, compensation may be backdated to the day following his release from service. A veteran applying after he has been out of service a year may be paid only from the date his application was filed.
Q—I understand there is a new ruling whereby a disabled veteran may now get a head start toward rehabilitation by beginning vocational training while still a patient in a VA hospital. Will you explain this, please?
A—The new ruling permits training for veterans who are far enough along in their hospital treatment to be able to leave the hospital part of the day to attend school. Formerly, veterans generally had to be out of the hospital before they could start rehabilitation training.
Q—I'm a Korea veteran, holding GI term insurance. Is it true that I now can convert my term insurance to a permanent plan?
A—Yes Korea veterans holding term insurance with the letters "RS" before the policy number now may convert to one of six permanent VA plans.

REED SUCCESSOR
Jamestown Sun: Democrats from four counties will meet this week to choose a candidate for the vacancy created by the death of U. S. Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-N. Y.). The announcement was made following a meeting of the county Democratic Committee's executive group at Hotel William Peacock in Mayville Monday night. Samuel J. Conte, chairman, presided. Chairmen of Democratic organizations in Chautauque, Cattaraugus, Allegany and Livingston counties will meet to select the candidate.

OVERLOAD TRUCK CASES
Erie County is seeking aid from the county's representatives in Harrisburg for legislation curtailing or eliminating financial losses suffered by the county in overload truck cases. Attorney Wendell Good and Sheriff John Coates made the trip to the state capital where they were advised to take up the matter with county lawmakers. When truckers fail to pay fines for overloads, their trucks are impounded by the sheriff. The vehicles are stored for 60 days. If the penalty is not paid within that period the county auctions the trucks and applies the proceeds to the fine and cost. It is in this transaction that the loss to the county occurs.

CRAWFORD BUDGET
Despite a county budget which calls for expenditures of $20,000 more than last year, Crawford County commissioners decided last week against an increase in tax levies. With no cushion other than a good-sized bank balance, which must be maintained in order to meet running expenses until revenues start coming in in July, all county departments have been ordered to stick to their budgets. Commissioners have made no provisions in the budget for demands sure to come as a result of the January flood disaster in Meadville. While a governor's edict allows counties to spend over their budgets for expenses of a flood disaster, it is too soon to place this item in the budget, since no accurate estimate of the cost has been obtained.

Would Include China In Nuclear Controls

WASHINGTON (AP)—If a foolproof system to control armaments or nuclear weapons testing could be negotiated, Red China should be included in it, says the State Department's top Far East specialist.

But to include Red China, the system would have to be sound and workable, Walter S. Robertson, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, told the Senate Disarmament subcommittee Monday.

Oil Imports Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation was introduced in Congress Monday to restrict imports of oil. Bills introduced in both the Senate and the House call for mandatory restrictions on oil imports, with quotas based on capacities of domestic inland and coastal refineries. Residual fuel oil imports also would be limited.

Hospital Emergencies

Kevin Hannah, Tidoute, burns of back.
Raymond Gorman, Tionesta, fractured right arm.
Robert Thompson, Clarendon, fractured right wrist.
Elizabeth Stingle, RD 2 Warren, laceration right hand.

SAFE DRIVING TIP

Grade crossings are a particularly dangerous kind of highway intersection.

Many grade crossing accidents are the result of carelessness, inattention, and excessive speed. In the illustration the motorist has started across a multiple track crossing only seconds after a train has passed. He has forgotten about the other track completely, and a collision is unavoidable.

The Chicago Motor Club advises that in the interest of saving their own lives, drivers should: Watch for and obey all grade crossing signs and other warnings; approach crossings at reduced speeds; look both ways before crossing; and, under adverse driving conditions, stop completely to make sure the crossing is clear.

STAMPS AND SAVINGS
This interesting editorial on a timely subject appeared in a recent issue of The Christian Science Monitor:
The man of the house had better brace himself to face an "I told you so" glow from the little woman across the dinner table.
No less substantial a personage than Uncle Sam himself has announced that the shopper who saves and redeems trading stamps does come out ahead. She pays an average of six-tenths of 1 per cent more in stamp-giving stores, but the value of the stamps averages about 2 per cent of the money spent, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. When she redeems the stamps her average profit nets 1.4 per cent.
"That is," comments the USDA report with an accent that only can be described as masculine, "if you don't count the time and trouble it takes to save and redeem these stamps."
But what woman thinks of these transactions involving premiums in terms of "time and trouble"? To her they are fun and fulfillment. What is more deliciously satisfying to the one who is usually the chief watcher of the family purse and pincher of budget pennies than the feeling that she has not only acquired something she wants and might not otherwise have but that she has gotten it practically "for free"?
In spite of controversies that have long waged over whether trading stamps represent a bonus or an expense to consumers, seven out of ten American housewives have been patronizing stores that issue trading stamps, reports Sperry & Hutchinson, a large trading stamp company.
Now Uncle Sam's findings, based on a survey to determine the effect of trading stamps on food prices in 21 cities in the period from November, 1953, to March, 1957, appear to vindicate the little woman's built-in ability to track down a bargain.
Late reports seem to indicate that Beaty school will be filled to capacity for the annual Area Chamber of Commerce dinner Wednesday evening. Dr. William H. Alexander, of Oklahoma City, is highly rated as an after-dinner speaker, being one of the ten top men in this particular field.
Aspirants for county offices were out bright early today securing signatures to petitions, must be filed before closing time on March 10.
According to all indications an exciting political campaign is in prospect between now and 9th, especially among Republican hopefuls.
It is pleasing to note the increasing number of names that are being added to the Blood Donor Two Gallon Club.

WORLD TODAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. William Proxmire, Wisconsin Democrat who reportedly does 50 push-ups a day to keep in condition and who once won a boxing championship at Yale, has taken on a political heavyweight, Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas.
In the Senate, some take the attitude that everybody loves Lyndon and Lyndon loves everybody. The tall Texan is the leader of the Senate Democrats, and tries to shepherd them around like a big, happy family.
So when Proxmire 43, laced into Johnson, 51, Monday it was like hearing a lieutenant tell the general he was getting too big for his britches.
His complaint in effect was that Johnson handles the Senate Democrats undemocratically. Proxmire said Johnson runs the party's program in the Senate without consulting the other Democrats.
"The typical Democratic senator has literally nothing to do with determining the legislative program and policies of this party in the Senate," he said.
Proxmire, who won the Senate seat of the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy in 1957 and then won reelection to a full six-year term last year, demanded that the 64 Democratic senators be called together for a conference or caucus before major party decisions.
He said he thought that if Johnson had regular meetings with his fellow Democrats it would improve the leadership.
None of this is likely to improve the popularity of Proxmire for two reasons:
1. He has started a family fight among Democrats—much to the Republicans' delight.
2. Johnson, who sees to it that agree with whatever is said because they are afraid to express their own opinions. How much more interesting classes would be if everyone would take part in discussions and answer questions. Teen-agers' answers are often affected by their follow the leader attitude. I overheard a boy, when his mother asked him why he hadn't opened the car door for her, answer "But, mother, what if one of the fellows would see me? This may be a little exaggerated, but most of us will admit that our manners are not as polished as they should be. The way that teenagers dress often shows a lack of individualism. Fads are fine in their place but many times they are carried too far. We must remember that we are on display and should dress to suit the occasion. Our speech is often affected by terms and slang that we hear from someone we admire. Some teen-agers think that swearing and cursing are perfectly acceptable, because all their friends speak that way. A girl I know appears to be a charming young lady until she opens her mouth to talk. As soon as she starts to speak, the gracious atmosphere she had created disappears because of her crude manner of speaking and his limited vocabulary. Let us dare to be a little different from everyone else. Don't be afraid to stand up for what you believe. You will be respected and admired. Lyell B. Here and There

One hundred and sixty years ago—on March 2, 1799—Congress, acting under a grant of power from the U. S. Constitution, passed the first Federal weights and measures laws in the United States. Warren will join hundreds of cities across the nation in the observance of "National Weights and Measures Week" commemorating the event. Chairman of the local observance is Ralph Dykes, Bear Lake. Mr. Dykes reports that few activities are more basic to our business system and our civilization than accurate weights and measures. "Our civilization would quickly grind to a halt without them," he said. It is almost impossible to name anything to wear, use or eat that has not been weighed or measured once or many times in its production and distribution. The Weights and Measures Department of Warren County has many varied duties. Mr. Dykes said, "We check nearly everything from the gravel that goes on your drive, the gas you use in your car, the coal for your furnace, the meats, milk and vegetables you use and even the new babies over at the hospital." The Weights and Measures Department protects both buyer and seller. Mr. Dykes said. The average family of four has a financial stake estimated at $100 and more per year in weights and measures enforcement, he said. The businessmen of Warren county have even greater financial stakes in making sure that their scales and measuring devices are correct. Mr. Dykes said. Where large volume business is done, it is possible to give away thousands and tens of thousands of dollars worth of material on "slow" scales, he declared. Scales in our county are regularly tested for accuracy, once a year and unannounced spot checks are made regularly. Mr. Dykes said. The overwhelming majority of merchants in Warren county come to John Chapman Urbaitis, son of Dr. and Mrs. John C. Urbaitis, North Warren, for his editorial. "Dare to Be An Individualist," which appeared in a 1958 issue of the Warren High School Dragonette at the time young Mr. Urbaitis was its editor. He is now a freshman at Allegheny College, Meadville. Second award for editorials has come to John from the Pennsylvania School Press Association. Following is the award-winning editorial as it appeared in the Dragonette: Not long ago I overheard a teacher remarking to another about the lack of individualism among high school students today. So, I began observing teen-agers at school and on the streets. Sure enough, there does seem to be a certain "follow the leader" type of attitude prevalent among Warren teen-agers. This attitude shows itself most clearly in the classroom. The average students are perfectly content to sit back and let the students who get higher grades answer all the questions. They

NEW YORK (AP)—School boards—and taxpayers—may be struggling today to provide classrooms for the rapidly increasing number of pupils. And debates may be raging over how much new schools should cost and how fancy they should be.
But for the makers of seats, desks, blackboards, laboratory equipment and the like every prospect pleases.
For them the baby boom of the forties is now paying off in booming sales. And they are doing their best to convince school boards—and taxpayers—that the equipment that was good enough for grandfather isn't good enough for sonny.
The nation's grade and high schools now have about 1.4 million classrooms, a half million of them built since World War II.
J. J. Stefan, president of the school equipment division of Brunswick-Balke-Collender Chicago, says that half of existing schools are more than 30 years old and a fifth of them were built in the last century. He predicts the nation will go on adding 60,000 classrooms a year.
J. M. Vermeulen, president of American Seating Co., Grand Rapids, Mich., says his firm's spending of half a million dollars in research is now paying off with new equipment designed to save costly floor space, among other things.
The Joint Economic Committee of Congress notes that since 1946 grade and high school enrollment has gone from 24 million to 34 million. It predicts this will rise by another 12 million in the next ten years. It estimates classrooms to house all of these oncoming youngsters will cost the nation 20 billion dollars.
American Seating is offering an electronic teaching center. This includes a 21-inch TV receiver and a built-in tape recorder. Teacher can turn a knob to switch the TV from closed circuit to direct network operation. Other knobs open and close drapes or dim lights.
For the pupil the company has a freely movable unit with consistent posture support, adjustable desk where he can change the height or slant the top at various angles, and swivel action in the chair to make everything easy.
Brunswick-Balke-Collender is pushing a coordinated flexible line, which it says gets the most out of classroom space by allowing a change from a kindergarten area to a high school science room, say, in a matter of minutes.
It is offering one piece fiberglass chairs in six colors and melamine table top surfaces to control light reflection. Desk lids have touch lifting devices, which the firm says will keep youngsters from smashing their fingers.

Daily Lenten Meditations
From the Upper Room
Read Psalm 96:1-10.
"Take heed what you hear; the measure you give will be the measure you get, and still more will be given you." (Mark 4:24.)
This is a simple story of a friend who shared with many of his neighbors the water in his cistern during a severe summer drought. Because of a lack of rain cisterns were empty, and water from the city had to be brought in water carts to most homes.
Our neighbor's wife protested to her husband that soon the water in their cistern would also be exhausted. So to keep watch on their supply, he measured the depth of water morning and evening for several days. He found to his utter amazement that the water was staying at the same level. He discovered that for years he had had an inexhaustible spring feeding cold, pure water into his cistern.
They never knew what a treasure they had until they began to share their water with others. In their water supply, God had been blessing them year after year in a way unknown to them.
So often we do not discover how much we have until we begin to share with those in need.
PRAYER
Dear heavenly Father, we remember with grateful hearts Thy many blessings to us and all Thy care. Accept, we pray, our humble thanks. Help us this day to have compassion toward those in need and help them. In the Redeemer's name. Amen.

How to Keep Well

PYORRHEA IS CURABLE
Many teeth are lost through pyorrhea (periodontal disease) than from any other dental disorder. This occurs when the condition is neglected and allowed to progress until the gum tissues supporting the teeth are beyond repair.
Not every type of pyorrhea is incurable. Something can be done to prevent and treat most of the common forms. Dentists estimate that the outlook is favorable in 85 per cent of cases that are recognized early and treated immediately.

Normal gums are firm, pale pink in color, and conform to the contour of the teeth. The most common infection stems from food that gets in between gum and teeth. Irritation of the soft tissues follows. In time, pockets develop, calcium deposits appear, and hard spurs form on the root. The gums turn various shades from red to magenta, soften, and bleed occasionally.

Prevention hinges on good dental hygiene. Keeping the teeth clean will maintain a firm attachment between gum and tooth. This means brushing the teeth immediately after eating and removing with floss, round toothpicks, or Stimudents the food particles that lodge between the teeth.

Food is more likely to accumulate when the teeth are separated or loosened. This is the reason why a bridge or space retractor is suggested after an extraction. The teeth loosen when the bite is poor or when night grinding occurs. Both these conditions are curable.

Expert dental care is needed should periodontal disease develop. All of the deposits in the pockets around the teeth must be removed with appropriate instruments and all rough spots and irregularities smoothed off. Meanwhile, eating a balanced diet will help keep the gums and teeth in a healthy state. Abnormalities, such as anemia, liver and kidney disorders, diabetes, and glandular malfunctions should be corrected.

SILENT MEALS
Mrs. H. writes: My two young grandchildren are not permitted to talk at the table while eating. Their mother claims conversation would interfere with their digestion. Is this possible?
REPLY
No. Dinner time should be one of the most important periods of the day and pleasant conversation offers the relaxation that improves digestion.

INHERITANCE OF STATURE
A. D. W. writes: My boy friend is 6'7" tall and each of his six brothers is more than 6'4". I am 5'8". If we marry, will our children be above average in height? I would hate to have a 6'4" daughter.
REPLY
The possibility is good because both you and your friend are above average size. If the situation disturbs you, now is the time to change to a boy friend closer to your size.

QUITE A REDUCTION
Mrs. D. writes: My 15 year old daughter reduced from size 38 to size 12 but lost her period. I'm worried but she won't let me take her to a doctor. Do you think this is serious?
REPLY
Probably not, as girls this age are likely to be irregular, whether or not they lose weight. Malnutrition sometimes plays a role.

DIAPHRAGMATIC HERNIA
P. K. writes: When is surgery advised for hiatus hernia?
REPLY
When symptoms are severe and cannot be relieved through antacids and diet. In this condition, a hernia in the diaphragm allows the upper part of the stomach to protrude upward into the chest.

★ EDSON IN WASHINGTON ★
Washington Eyes Import Of Arab Parley Feelers
By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA)—A new idea for a Little Summit conference between leaders of the Arab world and western powers is kicking around Washington and at the United Nations in New York.
The approach is through a suggestion that President Gamal Abdel Nasser and heads of other Arab governments be invited to the United States. The justification is that this would be a return of the visits which Deputy Undersecretary of State Robert Murphy and Assistant Secretary William M. Rountree made to the Middle East last year.
The subject matter for such talks, according to the preliminary feeler, would be to see if some way could be found to disengage the Middle East from the cold war conflict between Soviet Russia and the western powers.
In effect this would be carrying the idea of Arab neutrality one step further.
BUT THE CONTENTION is made that in the long run this would bring the Middle East into closer relations with the West. And if that happened, it is maintained that the Arab countries would be less receptive to influence from Soviet Russia.
This whole plan is obviously of Arab origin. There has been no official State Department acknowledgment of reaction to the suggestion. It has been only received in first informal discussions with U.S. officials. There has been no encouragement to the Arabs to make a formal presentation to the State Department for a full conference.
As a subject for speculation, however, the idea is not without interest. The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has urged the State Department to seek new solutions for old, stalemated crises.
WHAT THE ARABS are understood to mean by "disengaging the Middle East from the cold war" is abandonment by the U.S. of the belief that there is only one crisis in the world—the struggle against communism.
They maintain that the U.S. should stop insisting on pacts and bases for defense against the Soviet Union before giving aid to Middle East countries.
The weakness of this argument is that if the U.S. and western European countries should act to disengage the Middle East from the cold war, it would by no means cause the Communists to disengage and discontinue their efforts to take over that part of the world.
On the contrary, any relaxation of western defenses in the Middle East might only serve to step up Communist subversion.
ARAB LEADERS POINT OUT, however, that relations between Russia and the Middle Eastern countries have been going from bad to worse in recent months.
Nasser has cracked down on Communists in his United Arab Republic of Syria and Egypt. Russia's Khrushchev in reply castigated the U.A.R. leaders in his report to the 21st Party Congress for their charges that Communists were working against Arab nationalism.
Communist countries' releases of Jews from Rumania and now Russia, for migration into Israel, is also regarded as anti-Arab in purpose.
It is this situation which may have encouraged Arab spokesmen in this country to explore possibilities for improving relations to the West. It is intimated that any moves in this direction by the United States would be welcomed by Arab leaders.

Kinzua Auxiliary Unit Has Active Session

The regular meeting of Blant-Bentley Unit 747, Kinzua American Legion Auxiliary, opened with singing of the "Star Spangled Banner". Mrs. James Snyder presided, and eight members attended the session at the home of Mr. Clyde English.

Mrs. Snyder reported on the Inter-County Council meeting held recently in Warren. Mrs. Marshall Stanton, a member of Unit 747, is press-publications chairman for the Council this year. Six members attended: Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Stanton, Mrs. Angelo Dito, Miss Vera Snyder, Mrs. Philip Pomplio and Mrs. Clyde English. Next Council meeting will be at Smithport on April 25.

It was announced the Junior Auxiliary met February 14 at the home of Mrs. Jack Walter, with 13 in attendance. Following the meeting, when they decided to make scrapbooks for the children's ward at the hospital. Mrs. Snyder showed movies, followed by lunch. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Snyder, with Mrs. Gerald English serving.

Mrs. Angelo Dito, coupon chairman, distributed lists of coupons which the Auxiliary saves to be sent to the state department for the president's project, which this year will benefit the Scotland, School and Orphans Home. "March is coupon month, let us have a coupon shower", she challenged, so each one is urged to bring as many as possible to the next meeting.

Poppy seals went on sale amongst the members, and a good sale was realized.

Next meeting will be March 5 at the home of Mrs. Dito, when hostesses will be Mrs. Harry Hancock and Mrs. Vincent Madonia.

Mrs. Snyder closed the meeting with the group singing the "Hymn of the Month". Mrs. Jack Walter showed movies of the Hot Stove League baseball supper and the Children's Christmas party, each sponsored jointly by the post and auxiliary. Lunch was served by Mrs. Clyde English and Mrs. Gerald English.

AKELEY WSCS

Ida Grace Larson, president, conducted the Akeley Methodist WSCS meeting, held with Mrs. Anton Lindquist, with Mrs. Harold Arthur as co-hostess. There were ten members and one visitor in attendance.

The program was "A New Frontier—Literacy and Christian Literature." Mrs. Henry Larson, Spiritual Life secretary, was in charge of devotions. Mrs. Lella Biss presented the fifth chapter of Isaiah from the study book; the president read "If-Man Should Reach the Moon."

It was noted the society has installed a rack in the church for "Upper Rooms" and other literature. Thanks were received from the Rouse Home for the Christmas treat. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Carl Nelson, and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Hayden Pickup and Mrs. Jeral Angove will be hostesses for the March 12 meeting at 8:00 p. m., place to be announced. "E" is the letter for the memory-verses.

BIRTHDAY AFFAIR

A birthday party in honor of Karen Elaine Fisher and Howard Fisher was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Barnes, of Sugar Grove Rd. 2. There were 30 guests present from Sinclairville, Jamestown, Warren, Bear Lake and Youngsville. Cake and ice cream were served by the hostess, and a fine time was had by all.

Retarded Children's Group Hears Speaker

With a plea to "let reasoning and understanding, not emotions, guide our actions", Miss Elizabeth Snelbeld, supervisor of special classes in Warren and Forest counties, spoke at the February meeting of Warren County Association for Retarded Children.

She told of classroom aspects of special education, and touched on future planning for retarded children. In closing, Miss Snelbeld brought out the fact "we must give our A-L-L: A—being acceptance; we forget to accept people for what they are and to enjoy living with other people, and we must give affection and approval to these also; L—love, which we must stretch to include strangers and L—loyalty to each other and to people who are trying to help weld these three to all future actions for the benefit of retarded children."

A coffee hour was enjoyed following the program. The March 17 meeting will be held in Warren County Dairy social rooms, with Wayne A. Dockhorn, of Philadelphia, institutional field representative of PARC, as guest speaker.

Special Jaycee Bonus Concert Is To Bring Hugh Thompson to Town

Reminding Concert Series members that Nelson and Neal, famed piano duo, will be heard in Beatty Junior High School auditorium Friday evening, the Jaycee music committee makes another important announcement today.

A bonus concert, open only to those holding season memberships, will be presented at 8:30 p. m. March 7, the recitalist to be Hugh Thompson, Metropolitan Opera Company baritone.

The piano recital this Friday has been set for 8:45 p. m. to accommodate shoppers. It is noted the popular Australian-American piano team of Nelson and Neal is celebrating both a professional and personal anniversary this year. In the fall of 1948, they became a two-piano team; their wedding took place on New Year's Day, 1949.

In 10 short years, they have become one of the world's most popular and distinguished two-piano teams. They have been featured on their own television and coast to coast radio series, have played many hundreds of concerts in both hemispheres. They are noted for their fine transcriptions, although they specialize in original literature and have introduced many works for four hands.

Allison Nelson was Australia's leading child prodigy and was brought to this country by Eugene Normandy in 1914. While studying with Rudolf Serkin at Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia, she met and fell in love with Harry Lee Neal, working there with the renowned pedagogue, Mme. Isabella Vengerova.

Today, this brilliant couple fills a rigorous concert schedule, traveling with three children in a specially-constructed bus, a $40,000 mobile unit containing complete living facilities for eight. It is self-sufficient to the point of built-in sewage disposal and electric power plant, and complete to the point of carrying shortwave radio, television, and telephone. Tucked in the back are two matched Baldwin concert grands.

It is commonly felt, however, that to understand the deep charm which had made Nelson and Neal beloved concert personalities, as well as celebrated artists, one must meet them in person. Those attending their Friday night concert in Beatty auditorium are assured of a well-planned two-piano recital, and the added pleasure of a personal appearance. Much of the world has applauded them as a fine team, with a remarkable sense of ensemble work and accomplished pianism distinguishing their teamwork.

Warren Rotary Members Plan Inter-Club Affair

Warren Rotarians heard a talk by Blue Wendelboe, head of Warren State Hospital accounting department, pertaining to the physical aspects in relations to hospital operation. Club members were informed that the "small village" of some 3900 to 4000 persons operates on an annual budget of four and one-half million dollars and that since 1880 nearly 100 buildings have been constructed to operate the institution and house patients.

Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr. reported a total of $2734.53 raised to date in the Warren County Probation Association campaign, urging club members to complete remaining work to be done.

President Frank Perrin announced that District Governor and Mrs. Herman Offner will attend the Inter-Club meeting to be held with Kane, Marrieville and Sheffield Rotary Clubs Monday, March 16. Miss Barbara Weaver, Rotary Foundation "Fellow," who studied in France some years ago and is now French instructor at Titusville High school, will be guest speaker.

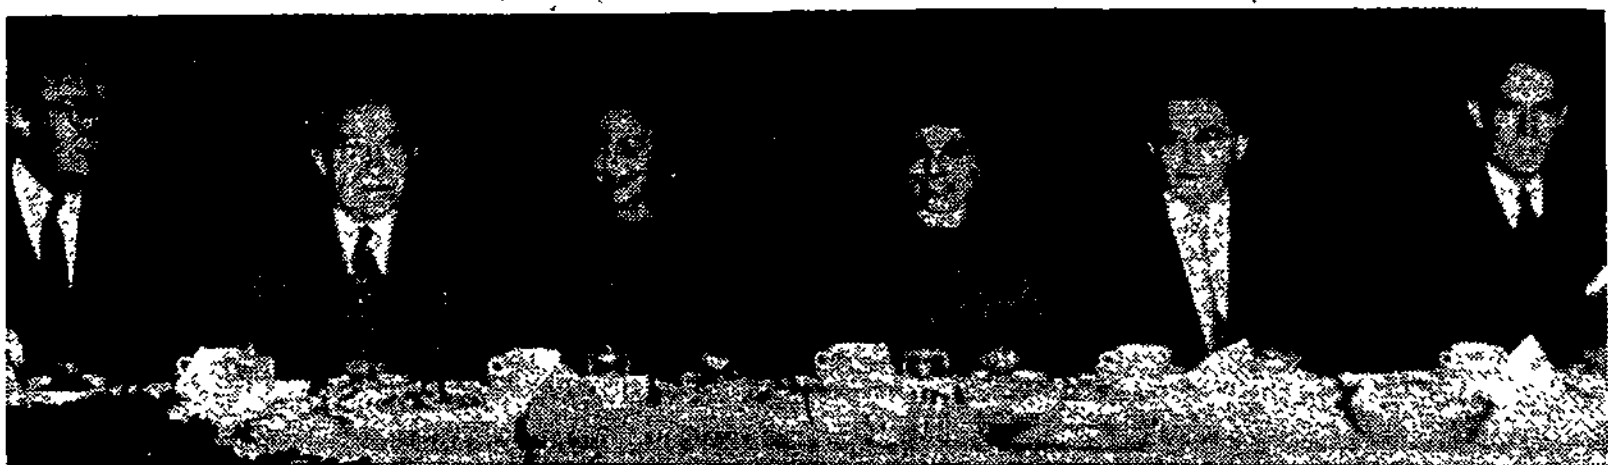

The Inter-Club program, which will also feature local musical talent, will be the basis of the Warren Rotary Club's observance of Rotary's 54th Anniversary year when on February 23, 1905, the first Rotary Club was organized in Chicago by Founder Paul P. Harris. In these 54 years as of December 1958, there were 10,018 clubs and an estimated membership of 468,500. New clubs organized since total 146.

Visiting Rotarians were Chris Yutze of the Sheffield Rotary Club and Richard McCarthy of the Beck and Tinkham Architectural firm. Student guests were Warren high school seniors, David Cruickshank and George Ball.

County Republicans Stage Rally Dinner

Honored guests with committeemen and women of the Warren County Republican organization swung into the beginning of an all-out primary election campaign at a GOP rally dinner last evening. Seated (l. to r.) are Allen M. Gibson, Warren county State Assemblyman and chairman of the county Republican committee; Frank Perrin, finance chairman; Mrs. William E. Rice, president of Warren County

Rain and slush failed to dampen the enthusiasm of nearly 100 Republicans as committeemen and women with husbands and wives plus many honored guests who gathered for a rally dinner at the YWCA last evening to formulate plans for the forthcoming Primary election and a concentrated registration drive in March.

Allen M. Gibson, Warren County GOP Committee chairman, presided and in his keynote comments urged members of the Republican organization to dedicate efforts toward a constructive program that would concern itself more with the welfare of people in Warren county and less with bickering type politics that had no place in a smaller county, stating that such was in poor taste considering the type of citizens represented.

Prior to launching into the scheduled program, resolutions were offered and adopted in memory of the late Jesse G. Smith, former county GOP chairman and Earl Hanna, Kinzua committeeman for many years, who passed away this week. The resolutions, commended both for their long and faithful careers and were presented by Ed C. Lowrey, 7th ward committeeman and Gall Mead, committeeman for Mead 3rd district. Adoption was signified when those present rose to observe a moment of silence.

Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr., presented the principal address, stressing the vital need for able Republicans to work harder; to build from their own strength rather than any weakness apparent in the opposing party. The Judge referred to the American political party system as the "life-blood" of the nation, stating that such were created in recognition of statutory laws and presented the legal method of electing representatives on every level of government. Other comments advised committee workers as to possible ways in which precincts could be vitalized, and complimented the group on its current choice of candidates coming out for local and county offices.

Judge Flick also explained a petition which had been presented seeking appointment of a commission to study the reallocation of certain wards in the borough to assure a more equal population division. A report has been made and it is recommended that Wards I and Council of Republican Women; Miss Sunny Lucia, county vice-chairman in charge of a March registration drive; Gurney Ball, Youngsville committeeman, who chairmanned the rally affair and Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr., who was principal speaker. The group also included many other prominent Republicans in the area. — Timesphoto by Saylor.

2 combine to become Ward 1 with the big 5th ward separated into two parts; one to be designated as Ward 5, the other to be known as the 10th ward. It is anticipated that the recommendation will be accepted and all new offices elected.

A unanimous vote approved Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Ball as co-chairmen for a Republican picnic to be held during July or August this summer and an effort is being made to secure Senator Scott and State GOP chairman George Bloom as speakers.

Mr. Gibson introduced guests at the head table including: E. H. Ley, Republican committee treasurer; District Attorney and Mrs. Samuel Bonavita; Burgess and Mrs. William E. Rice; Frank Perrin, county finance chairman; The Rev. Donald H. Spencer of First Presbyterian church, who gave the invocation; and Mrs. Spencer; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Yeagle, County secretary Ralph Sires and Mrs. Sires, who with Miss Sunny Lucia, county organization vice-chairman, arranged for dinner decorations; and Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Ball, the former being chairman for the successful rally.

Departure for Harrisburg necessitated the departure of the county chairman with Miss Lucia taking over the balance of the meeting. Stepped up registration was discussed, to be headed in the county by Miss Lucia and Mrs. William E. Rice, president of Warren County Council of Republican Women. The drive is scheduled to get under way March 9 and continue until the March 30 closing registration date. Gurney Ball further instructed the workers.

Mrs. Rice spoke briefly to invite all interested Republicans to attend the initial Women's Council meeting Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the small Warren County court room, when Attorney William Sennett will speak on the Young Republican program. GOP men are also welcome and from all indications several plans to arrive at 8:30 p. m. to hear Mr. Sennett. All area Young Republicans are also urged to attend.

Candidates for county offices whose announcements have already signed their intentions were introduced as well as some who have been considering tossing their hats into the political arena.

Tree Planting Bill Approved by Senate

HARRISBURG (AP) — Borough councils and first class township commissioners could regulate community tree planting under legislation before Gov. Lawrence today.

The Senate gave final approval to the measure Monday. The legislation, passed unanimously, authorizes borough councils and township commissioners to act as shade tree commissioners.

The bills passed the House two weeks ago.

Other bills passed by the Senate and sent to Lawrence for action would:

Allow boroughs consolidating into a new borough to have the option of electing one or two borough councilmen for each ward.

Increase the mileage allowance of delegates from second class townships attending state association meetings from 8 cents a mile to 10 cents.

The original courthouse still stands in Pierce City, first county seat in Idaho.

Area Engineers Attending Penn State Classes

Classes in Engineering Review courses were started last evening at Beatty Junior High School by Penn State's Behrend Campus in Erie. These courses are review sessions for practicing engineers who plan to take the professional examination this June at Pittsburgh for state registration in Pennsylvania.

Although review courses are available through Penn State in many engineering areas, the local class is composed of engineering personnel interested in preparing themselves for the Engineer-In-Training and Mechanical Engineering exam only. Classes are informal in nature, with emphasis being placed upon those phases of the various technical areas in which class members feel the most need for help, and will meet at Beatty on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 10 p. m. for a period of twelve weeks.

Area engineers can still enroll by being present tomorrow evening in Room 116 and by being prepared to pay at least one-half the total $60.00 fee. It is hoped that all area engineers, who had previously requested the offering of these courses, will be present at that time in order to insure their continuation.

Local industries represented by the engineers enrolled include Struthers Wells Corporation, Hammond Iron Works, National Forge, Betts Machine Co., and the United Refining Company. Other area industries are encouraged to send their engineering personnel since it may be some time before area interest is sufficient for Penn State to again offer these courses in the Warren area.

Robertson Scores 36 Points to Lead Bearcat Victory

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati held a fumer grip on the college basketball scoring lead today following a hectic night in which red hot Kentucky overcame a deep freeze and Bailey Howell of Mississippi State set a Southeastern Conference scoring mark.

Robertson whipped in 36 points to lead the Bearcats to their 13th straight victory, 92-69 over Tulsa. Oscar's output was only three less than the entire Kentucky team compiled in turning back stalling Alabama 39-27.

Howell had 32 points as Mississippi State rode over Tulane 63-31. That boosted Howell's career total to 2,024 points breaking the record of 2,002 set by Bob Pettit at Louisiana State.

Despite Robertson's performance, Cincinnati had a tough time getting past Tulsa. The Bearcats led by only three points with six minutes to go, then racked up 11 straight points to move to their 10th Missouri Valley victory against no setbacks.

Kentucky, back in the No. 1 spot in the latest Associated Press poll was hampered by Bama's deliberate style and wound up in a 23-all deadlock at halftime. But the Wildcats started the second half with a nine-point scoring spurt before Alabama but its first field goal.

Mississippi State clinched at least a tie for the Southeastern Conference title and a berth in the NCAA championships. But because of Mississippi's segregation custom State may not take part in the tournament.

Auburn was beaten by Tennessee 56-35.

Kentucky Back In Number Spot In the Rankings

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Kentucky, a team that gets up when the chips are down, is back in the No. 1 spot in the national college basketball rankings.

The 1958 National Collegiate champions turned in a couple of important victories last week to regain first place in The Associated Press weekly poll of sports writers and broadcasters which they had lost when they dropped a game to Mississippi State two weeks ago.

First they belted Vanderbilt 83-71 to wipe out their first defeat of the season. Then they handed Auburn its first defeat, 65-36. Although Kentucky is only third in the Southeastern Conference, those victories kept alive the Wildcats' hopes of again getting into the NCAA tournament which they won last year.

Kentucky got some aid from an unexpected source in returning to the top. North Carolina leader in last week's poll got past its toughest rival North Carolina State then stumbled and lost to Maryland 69-51. That dropped the Tar Heels to third in the rankings behind Kentucky and Kansas State. Auburn, second a week ago, slipped to sixth after losing to Kentucky.

Olmedo Going Back to Southern California

NEW YORK (AP)—That Savitt, mumbled National Indoor Tennis Champion Alex Olmedo today, "he is a very tough fellow."

"Those balls he hits are so hard to follow when you play him indoors."

But Olmedo, the Pontian-born ace of the American Davis Cup team, saw "those balls" enough to defeat Savitt 7-9, 6-3, 4-6, 5-7, 12-10 Monday in the final of the National Indoor Tournament.

"Now, continued Olmedo, 'I am going back to school at Southern California'."

Competitive War In Making for Top TV Fights

CHICAGO (AP)—A competitive war to promote the top boxing shows for respective television programs is in the making between newly formed organizations in Chicago and New York.

Arthur M. Wirtz and Jim Norris, the big guys behind the court-closed International Boxing Club, will continue to promote matches under the name of National Boxing Enterprises, Inc.

Wirtz announced Monday at a news conference that the NBE will be directed by Truman Gibson, former president of the IBC, and will be a subsidiary of the Chicago Stadium Corp., one of many properties owned by Norris and Wirtz.

The NBE will continue presentation of the Wednesday night televised fights from various cities in co-operation with local promoters.

"Our new organization has the know-how and the resources and we are going to continue in boxing on a major basis," said Wirtz.

In New York, Harry Markson, general manager of the newly formed Madison Square Garden operation, said:

"We will be in competition not only with the Chicago outfit, but with all other promoters, including Bill Rosenzohn (promoter of the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight)."

Under a court anti-trust ruling which dissolved the IBC of New York and Illinois, Wirtz and Norris had to sell their stock in the Garden.

Sad End for Pitt's

Don Hennon Saturday

An era in the history of Pitt basketball comes to a sad end

Saturday when All-American

Don Hennon plays his final game in Blue and Gold against tugged Penn State at the Field

House.

The game will precede a wrestling match between Pitt and Penn State. Lions and Panthers meet the same day at Pitt Field

House.

Hennon must rank as most colorful basketball player in

Pitt history although many arguments range whether he is the best. Many feel that Charley Hyatt, a three-time All-

American is the best. Hennon gave Pitt fans many thrilling moments and led them to two straight NCAA Championships.

Hennon must graduate but his feats will remain.

He scored 1,224 points in his first two seasons. Against Duke in '57, he sank 45 points.

Madden Aids Rock

In a "postal" meet with

Southern University of Baton

Rouge, Louisiana last Friday,

two records at Shippery Rock

STC were broken.

"Rock's opening 400-yard

medley relay broke the old pool and school record of 4:27 4/5 with a "fantastic" time of 4:12.2.

Warren's Pat Madden swam

the breaststroke leg of the re-

A postal meet is where the two teams compete in their respective pools. The results of the competition mailed to the other participant to decide the winner.

In the 200-yard butterfly,

Madden knocked seven seconds off his old record, posting a time of 2:58.0 Friday. He also captured breaststroke 200-yard race, clocked at 2:46.5 only two seconds of the record at Shippery Rock.

Speaking of Sports

Oil City YMCA is planning on conducting their 20th Gold Medal Basketball Tournament for junior independent teams of the tri-state area. Play will start week of March 16. Any boy not yet 19 years of age is eligible for the tourney. Entry fees and rosters are to be submitted to Oil City YMCA by Saturday, March 14. Games will consist of 8 minute quarters with extra periods as defined in basketball rules of 1959. Trophies for first, second and third winners plus 60 individual awards.

Pre-practice observance of the prospective kids for the second annual gym show points up to another extravaganza. Directed by Hal Miller and Phil Putnam, the show this year will be for two nights, April 9-10, in Beatty gym. Warren High students began practice in High School last evening, 45 turning out for the initial session. Last season's show, "Fitness for Youth," drew a full house. Six Players in Race For Hockey Scoring MONTREAL (AP)—The scoring race in the National Hockey League is in direct contrast to the battle for first place, statistics showed today.

Six players have a good shot at the scoring title. Led by defending champ Dickie Moore, whose Montreal Canadiens have a 15-point edge over second-place Chicago.

Moore put on an eight-point sprint last week to gain the lead with 69 points. He has 32 goals and 37 assists. Chicago's Ed Litzenberger is next with 68 points, followed by New York's Andy Bathgate with 67, Bernie Geoffrion of Montreal with 66, and Jean Beliveau of Montreal and Gordie Howe of Detroit tied with 63 apiece.

Moore's 32 goals lead the league, while Geoffrion's 44 assists top that department. Bathgate is second in goals with 31 and Beliveau has 29.

Montreal's Jacques Plante still is the top goalie with a 2.07 goals against average in 58 games.

Campanella's Son Arrested After Fight in Queens

NEW YORK (AP)—A son of former Dodger catcher Roy Campanella and 17 other youths were arrested Monday after a gang fight.

David Campanella, 15, was charged with juvenile delinquency. Police said he was a leader of a gang called "the Chaplains," who challenged another gang to a fight over "rights" to hang around a bowling alley in Flushing, Queens.

Police said the gangs arranged to meet Monday, to settle the issue.

Police spotted about 30 boys in a vacant lot and investigated. Six who were fighting, including Campanella, were taken in with 12 others.

Campanella and three others under 16 were charged with juvenile delinquency. The older boys were charged with disorderly conduct. No one was injured.

Police said "the Chaplains" gang was made up largely of Negro and Spanish-speaking youths. Campanella is a Negro. The other boys involved in the fight were white.

He and two of the boys picked up with him are members of a rock 'n' roll singing group — the Del-Cords — who have appeared on TV and cut a couple of records, which have yet to be released.

At the Bronx Youth House, where David was kept overnight, a man accompanying David's mother was involved in a fracas with a photographer.

Jack Baumohl, 47, on assignment with the New York Mirror, said an unidentified Negro accompanied Mrs. Campanella smashed his camera and pummeled him after he took her picture.

David's father has been active in a campaign against juvenile delinquency. He could not be reached for comment.

Everybody Urged To Sign JC Tax Reform Petition

"Like the weather, everybody is in favor of Tax Reform but nobody does anything about it," declared Jaycee Vice-President Gordon Drum today in urging every Warren citizen to sign one of the petitions currently being circulated throughout the community by Jaycee members.

"The Jaycees are trying to do something about it," Drum stated. The Tax Reform petitions are being circulated in hundreds of towns throughout the country and it is anticipated that tens of thousands of petitions will be presented to legislators in Washington this Spring.

The Warren chapter has established a goal of 3500 signatures and hopes to reach this figure by March 1.

Drum said that the purpose of this campaign is to get the over-all picture and structure of the tax system before the people so that concerted action can be taken to bring about the reforms and changes necessary. The Jaycees feel, according to Drum, that the present tax structure is excessive and discriminatory. They call for tax reduction among other things. Tax reduction will have a dual effect. One, it is capable of turning a lagging economy into a healthy one; and two, it brings about a higher rate of business activity which will promote an expanding economy—not inflationary.

The Jaycee program goes further than this. It is their belief that certain types of taxes that are collected by federal government could best be collected and administered at state or even local levels.

Many people think that because government has gotten so big, it would be impossible to reduce taxes because government could not stand the loss of revenue. Drum stated that in many countries where tax reduction has been carried out, the opposite has been true.

He cited the example of Austria. The Austrian Secretary of Treasury has stated that while the income tax in Austria has been reduced three times since 1952, each time a rise in the yield of taxes has resulted.

Titusville Now Preparing For Big Celebration

TITUSVILLE — One hundred years ago came Aug. 27, Col. Edwin L. Drake brought in an oil well near this small northwestern Pennsylvania community.

From it gushed one of the nation's greatest industries, one which helped catapult the United States into the front among world powers.

The center of the industry long since has moved to the southwestern United States but Titusville is getting ready to celebrate its role in the petroleum age.

The Centennial of Oil will be the biggest celebration this community of 9,000 has ever witnessed and will be slightly reminiscent of the boom which followed Col. Drake's discovery.

The observance will formally begin with a memorial service at the grave of Col. Drake in Woodlawn Cemetery in Titusville on March 29, his birthday.

A number of spring and summer events are planned by Oil Centennial, Inc., climaxed by the "Second Century Conclave of Oil" on Aug. 27.

The ambitious program will be financed with an estimated $200,000 to be contributed by the oil industry, Titusville and other communities nearby.

One of the unique features of the celebration will be a message from the governor of Texas to the governor of Pennsylvania — delivered in a container moved through a cross-country pipeline.

Centennial week events, Aug. 23-29, will include a symphony concert, oil region choral concert, art exhibit, display of Oil Americana, soap box derby, carnival, water pagant and fireworks.

Soviet Union. He and Macmillan were not expected to meet. Moscow newspapers gave Macmillan the warmest reception since his arrival Saturday. The Communist party organ Pravda and government paper Izvestia carried front-page photographs of Monday's formal meeting between the two leaders and devoted nearly two of their six pages to recounting Macmillan's activities and speeches.

The papers and Moscow radio also gave full play to Monday night's dinner at the British Embassy, where Khrushchev hailed Macmillan as a man of peace.

Macmillan opened his speech with a tribute to Red Army Day and the Soviet role in winning World War II.

"We continue to cherish the glorious memory of those heroic days," he said. "When I ponder the present state of the world, I ask myself whether we have not today a common interest of at least equal degree. This common interest is peace."

Khrushchev expressed regret that "it has not been possible to uphold the wartime alliance between Britain and the U. S. S. R. in the postwar world."

But he said the Soviets "think that the conversations between us will bring results; we think you want agreement even if all obstacles cannot be solved at once."

Mother Worried Over Baby Who Smokes Cigarette

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—A 2-year-old Peoria boy about a month ago picked up a lit cigarette and smoked it. Next day he wanted another. He got it.

Now the little tot, Lawrence Smith, smokes five cigarettes a day. His mother, Mrs. Lawrence Smith, says she is worried because she can't break him of the habit.

"I've tried," Mrs. Smith said. "But Lawrence cries and cries until he gets his cigarette. He wants his 'smoke.'"

Mrs. Smith, who said she doesn't smoke, said she believed Lawrence picked up the habit from the baby sitter she employs for the little fellow.

The mother tried to substitute candy cigarettes for the real thing. But it was no go. Lawrence doesn't light his cigarettes. He smokes. That's a job for either his mother or the baby sitter.

"There's a danger from fire if he lights his cigarettes himself," Mrs. Smith said.

Lawrence is careful with the ashes. He even carries an ash tray in his tricycle.

Modern Glass in Traditional Style Graces Tables

BY KAT SHERWOOD, NEA Staff Writer

Assembling the pretty ingredients for setting a handsome "company" dinner table is one part of homemaking which holds the attention of the newest bride and the most experienced hostess.

The drift toward more formal, traditional styles, often with roots in the Colonial American heritage evident in other fields of home furnishings, is clearly seen in new table settings.

The bride selecting her first table service or the woman replenishing depleted stocks will find fine glass stemware, classic shapes and more stylized patterns in dinnerware. All point the way to gracious entertaining.

Typical of gracious living, the life of wealthy planters in early Virginia lends its distinction to a remarkable new line of cut stemware, for example.

Remarkable, that is, in the method of manufacture, which combines machine and hand processes to produce cut glassware at a small price.

REMINISCENT of the famous "bucket shape" so popular in Colonial times when glassware imported for the plantations was cut stemware made in factories in Waterford, Dublin and Belfast, Ireland, the new stemware is made in four cuttings or designs and five sizes.

Although Freda Diamond designed this "Toledo collection," as the manufacturer has christened it, for traditional or contemporary settings, it will be much at home with other latter-day reproductions of earlier furnishings.

Highly polished Queen Anne and Chippendale tables, silver candelabras, epergnes in which fruit or flowers are arranged, classic Chinese, European (or their American adaptations) of china patterns and richly colored glassware come together at the dinner table along with cut stemware.

COLORED WATER glasses, repeating a color in the china pattern, may team with clear wine glasses, or they may add a dashing accent to modern settings.

Deep blue or purple-stemmed goblets lined in white are new this spring.

A lot of style for a little price is wrapped up in another new glass with a cranberry-red top and a clear glass stem which could be used with traditional or modern china.

Less formal for use with simple, modern china or provincial Modern elegance in the Colonial manner is given an assist by this new cut stemware, produced by a combination of machine and hand manufacturing processes.

china patterns are tumblers, and the period Georgian. Among them are straight-sided, All are made in such colors as textured tumblers, hobnail globes, ruby, amber and amethyst.

Ladies Hold Spotlight in Annual Carnival of Oscars

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The spotlight was on the ladies today in Hollywood's annual carnival of Oscars.

For the first time in years, there was no clear-cut favorite among the nominees for top actress. Not a tatted hair separates these five:

Elizabeth Taylor (Cat on a Hot Tin Roof); Susan Hayward (I Want to Live!); Deborah Kerr (Separate Tables); Shirley MacLaine (Some Came Running); and Rosalind Russell (Auntie Mame).

With the men, the story is different. David Niven and Spencer Tracy were established as odds-on favorites with Niven given a slight edge in the early betting.

Niven was nominated for his role as the pathetic woman molester in "Separate Tables" and Tracy, up for his third Oscar, was nominated for his one man show in "The Old Man and the Sea."

Tony Curtis and Sidney Poitier, who went through "The Defiant Ones" handcuffed to each other, are expected to cancel each other out of the running by their well matched performances.

The fifth male nominee is Paul Newman for "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof."

"Gigi," already winner of awards from the Screen Producers Guild and the Screen Directors Guild, is expected to repeat in the Academy Awards as best picture come April 6.

But competition from the other nominees will be stiff. They are "Auntie Mame"; "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof"; "The Defiant Ones"; and "Separate Tables."

In the supporting categories, the nominees for the men are: Theodore Bikel (The Defiant Ones); Lee J. Cobb (The Brothers Karamazov); Earl Ives (The Big Country); Arthur Kennedy (Some Came Running); and Gig Young (Teacher's Pet).

The supporting actress nominees are: Peggy Cass (Auntie Mame); Wendy Hiller (Separate Tables); Martha Hyer (Some Came Running); Maureen Stapleton (Lonely Hearts); and Cara Williams (The Defiant Ones).

Overworked? Here Are Some Step-Saving Tips for Wives

The woman who is always complaining about how overworked she is usually turns out to be a woman who doesn't use her head to save her hands and feet.

She'll walk all over town trying to find a certain article—instead of using the telephone to locate it. She'll hit the supermarket at five every day, instead of marketing once or twice a week.

She'll chauffeur her children every place they have to go because car pools are "too much trouble."

She'll make a separate trip for every errand she has to run, instead of saving up a list and making one trip count for half a dozen errands.

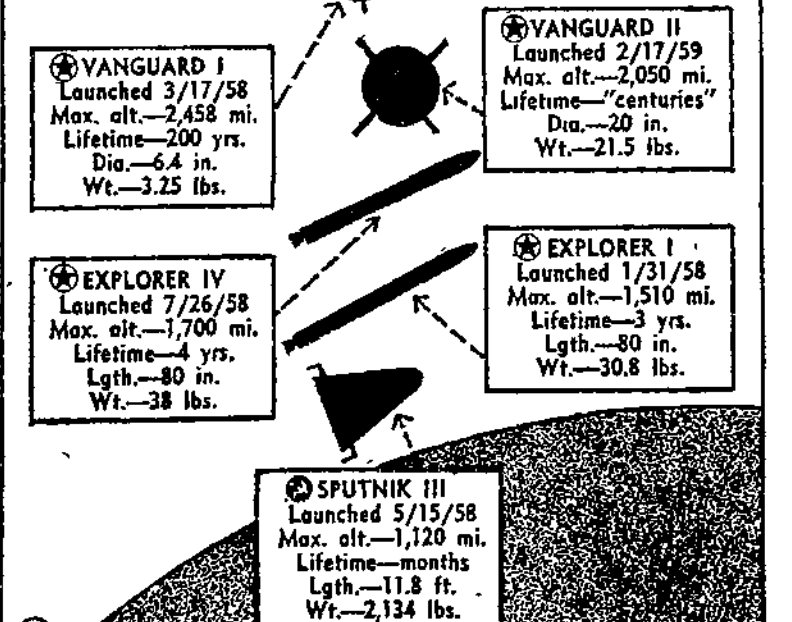

She'll neglect a small repair, until a major one is required—all on the grounds that she just didn't have time to see to the small chore, though the big one will take much more time and have to be done eventually.

She'll try for days to reach someone by telephone when writing a postcard asking the person to get in touch with her would take but a couple of minutes of her time.

She'll use a cash-carry concern, without bothering to find out if she can get delivery service from another at the same price. She'll sit in boredom under a hair dryer in a beauty salon when she could be writing letters or reading one of the books she claims she never has time to read.

She'll let anything waste her time—from a door-to-door salesman to a TV program she isn't interested in but hasn't the will power to turn off.

Any woman who is always tired, always behind in her work, and always wishing for more hours in the day ought to be sure that she is using her head to save herself effort and time.

Macmillan Visits Red Atom Smasher Plant

DUNA, U.S.S.R. (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan went to the heart of an atom smasher plant today and asked a Soviet scientist if it was really safe in there.

The British leader, looking pale and tired, inspected the vast machine on a visit here in a wintry woodland about 90 miles north of Moscow.

Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and Dep. Premier Pyotr Kozlov accompanied Macmillan and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd on the tour around the establishment.

One of the Soviet Union's foremost scientists, Vladimir Wechsler, showed Macmillan around.

"inal record." Burkhardt answered, adding: "For transportation of obscene records in interstate commerce."

Burkhardt told the committee Kennedy had been convicted on such a charge in 1950. Kennedy said one of Burkhardt's employees named Charles Seitz had been charged in 1953 with possession of 6,725 "pornographic records on premises of the North Side Phonograph Co."

No one said where that firm was located, but Burkhardt said he owned it. He added that he had "exonerated Seitz" because "if there were any obscene records, I'm the only one responsible."

The committee called Burkhardt as its leadoff witness in a second week of hearings on Chicago jukebox rackets, after testimony last week that a big record counterfeiting scheme was involved.

Sue Camp of Wichita Falls sent me today's hand with the comment: "I have been reading a lot about squeezes lately and apparently the reading is beginning to pay off. Anyway, I made the grand slam."
"John Emery's bids of four and five clubs were the Gerber convention and my spade bids showed two aces and two kings so he gambled on the grand slam."
"I saw 12 top tricks and only a squeeze could produce the 13th for me. West's opening lead indicated that he probably would be long in diamonds and I decided to check that right away. Three-diamond leads confirmed this. East discarded a heart and I a spade."
"The heart discard was most instructive. Apparently East was long in hearts. Next I ran off four clubs. On the fourth club lead West discarded a diamond, dummy a spade and East had to let go a spade to hang on to his four hearts."
"Now three heart leads squeezed West. He had to throw a spade also in order to keep the ten of diamonds. Dummy's seven of diamonds had done its work. I threw it away and made the last three tricks with the ace, king and four of spades."

Radio and TV

NEW YORK (AP)—It's a rare high school graduate who has not read or otherwise been exposed to William Shakespeare's "Hamlet." Despite this handicap of forced reading, the play survives as one of the most fascinating in the language.
Tonight England's Old Vic Company will present a 90-minute television adaptation of "Hamlet" on Du Pont show of the 30th (CBS-TV, 9:30 p. m., EST).
Pedants may be horrified at the motion of reducing a four-hour play to 75 minutes of playing time. But pedants sometimes are individuals who fail to see the woods as they myopically study individual trees.
"We have gone to the basic story in adapting the play," says Ralph Nelson, producer-director and co-adaptor with Michael Benthal the stage director of the Old Vic Company. "It moves extremely fast, with the accent on action. We've tried to bow away some just I believe that the important thing is not what we've cut out what we've retained."
Nelson pointed out that Shakespeare wrote "not for the library, but for the theater; not for the scholar but for the audience."
It seems logical to Nelson that if Shakespeare were alive today he might possibly be writing for television.
Certainly Shakespeare, with his concern to use every theatrical device possible in the theater of his time, would be interested to see the devices employed by modern television.
The enduring popularity of "Hamlet," Nelson believes, "is the result of its saying something to everyone in every generation."

News of Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It does a big studio get into a tailspin and how does it straighten up and fly right?
The most arresting example of the fluctuations of a film company's fortunes is Universal-International. It was long cited as the smartest studio operation in Hollywood. It made varied pictures for reasonable prices and developed important stars like Rock Hudson, Jeff Chandler, Tony Curtis and Audie Murphy.
Then one day U-I shut down. Hollywood suddenly realized that the studio wasn't in such good shape after all. And the town puzzled over how it all happened.
After a year's retelling, during which the studio property was sold and rented back, U-I is pecking once again. I asked some of the company bigwigs what happened.
"The real cause of our trouble was the automobile," said one of them. "The automobile permitted the explosion of the country's population after the war. Millions of couples now found themselves home owners. They also had more leisure time, but there was more competition for that time—do it yourself, Cub Scout and Brownie meetings, bowling, etc."
"Combined with this was the advent of television, which permitted every family to have its private projection room in the parlor. Movies found it tough to compete with these other draws on leisure time."
With 30 pictures in its backlog, U-I suspended operations. It was faced with these big problems: 1.

How to cut down its massive overhead. 2. How to lure top talent to create big attractions.
"Since we were obviously going to make fewer pictures, we wouldn't be able to keep a big lot busy," explained Vice President Dave Lipton. The solution was to sell the studio and rent back the space just as many big corporations do for office buildings. MCA, which needed a studio for its TV operations, was the buyer.
With its sales force streamlined and overhead trimmed, U-I could make attractive offers to independents.
Now it appears that U-I has worked out its blueprint for survival.

to teen-agers' feet.
"Young feet are not yet set in their shape, and young girls haven't learned how to walk in these pointed, high-heeled shoes without wobbling. They are developing bunions, ingrown toenails and foot infections."
On the other side of the fence are numerous shoe designers and foot health experts who contend that the tapered toe is well adapted to the shape of the normal foot. A recent survey by the American Foot Care Institute, for instance, reports that a well-fitted tapered-toe shoe causes no discomfort, fatigue or foot ailments.
Dr. Joseph Lelyveld, chairman of the National Foot Health Council, shares these views.
"If shoes are big enough and carefully fitted, there is no reason why they should cause foot damage or discomfort," he says.
Dr. Collins, however, insists that toes should have "wiggle room," and says the currently popular stiletto heels not only are dangerous, but are unbecoming.
"When a girl teeters along on these thin, high heels, she throws her posture out of line," he says.
This outspoken critic of fashion also reports that the incidence of sprained or fractured ankles has increased 30 to 40 per cent since the very high, spike heels became fashionable.
For all-day wear he advises low or medium heels, and adds: "Use extreme shoe styles as you do dessert in your diet."

We're producing a new generation of "wobbling Winnes" in shoes with needle toes and stiletto heels, says Dr. H. L. Collins of Columbus, Ohio director of public education for the American Podiatry Association and a podiatrist and foot surgeon for 27 years.
"If older women want to wear these precarious shoes, that's up to them," says Dr. Collins. "But we foot specialists are alarmed about what the current shoe styles are doing

Oddities in the News

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The latest idea in highways is dyed cement.

They're talking of different colored highways to help drivers through confusing intersections and road forks.
The proposal was outlined to reporters by Douglas McHenry, president of the American Concrete Institute, holding its convention here.

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—If everyone in this city flipped their light switches at the same time, the chairman of the Electricity Supply Committee says, it might take months to get all the lights working again.
Chairman Bhiku Ram Jain said the full load on the capital's electrical system is 200,000 kilowatts. But fortunately no more than 74,000 kilowatts is used at any one time.

The city hopes for additional electric power when the Bakura Nangal Dam begins production next year.

TORONTO (AP)—Canada's biggest city has rejected a suggestion that helicopters be used to control traffic.
Toronto Traffic Director Sam Cass said experience in the United States has shown the helicopters overhead result in more accidents and traffic tieups. Motorists tend to gape at them.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rocket expert Willy Ley predicts a man, probably a Soviet citizen, will be put in orbit around the earth within two years.

The German-born scientist said a manned station will be established in space about six to eight years from now.

He told Los Angeles State College students Monday that American scientists will not send a human into orbit until every phase of getting him back to earth has been solved. He did not indicate whether he thought the Soviets would show equal concern for space pilots' safety.

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Entertaining fishermen apparently made off with more than $60,000 worth of gold which went down when an Argentine plane crashed last June off Grande Island, 50 miles south of this Brazilian capital.

The plane was carrying 60 bars of gold worth about $78,000 from England to Buenos Aires. Only 11 bars were found in the wreckage. Police believe fishermen salvaged the remainder and sold it to jewelers.

Television Makes Men Clothes-Conscious

Television has made men almost as clothes-conscious as women, according to actor Craig Stevens, who stars as television's well-dressed private eye "Peter Gunn," on NBC Mondays 9:00-10:30 p. m.

A survey of Stevens' fan mail shows that 28 per cent of the women writing to him ask questions about women's clothes worn on the show, while 22 per cent of the men ask about his clothes, he revealed.

The reason for this, Stevens thinks, is twofold: the careful attention that Peter Gunn gives to his Don Richards wardrobe, plus the fact that men's styles in recent years have been so well designed that they have stimulated men's interest.

"Television, aimed at the millions, has had to dress its actors in styles acceptable to these millions," he says. "For instance, we wanted Peter Gunn to look well-groomed but not over dressed. His clothes had to be fashionable and in a price range that the average man could afford. Because wear and tear necessitated frequent changes, and the show, like the average male, had only a certain amount of money to spend for clothes, we had Don Richards supply suits in the medium price range."

Locally Don Richards brand clothes are handled by the Style Shop.

Franklin to Have Emergency Flood Control Office

Maurice K. Goddard, secretary of the Department of Waters, over the weekend revealed that arrangements are completed for setting up an emergency flood control office in Franklin.

The dispatch from Harrisburg says James W. Bailey, one of the department's two top men, will be in charge after the Property and Supplies Department reaches a decision on a proposed office location. Bailey was in the Stroudsburg office that was set up after the disastrous floods in August, 1955.

High water still is hampering department efforts at determining the type of emergency work necessary in the areas hard hit by floods last month. Goddard said. However, he added that an investigation is continuing to determine what type of emergency work can be undertaken.

The Legislature appropriated $500,000 in emergency funds for the work. Two emergency projects have been finished at Pictorial Rock while another has been completed at Lick Run. Both projects are in Lycoming County.

Goddard said as soon as the water levels return to normal, department engineers will investigate the flood problem further.

The department now has 14 flood control construction contracts underway which will have a total value of $5,340,256 when completed. These 14 projects are in addition to those on which the emergency appropriation funds will be used.

The department also has five contracts with engineering firms for flood studies in various parts of the state, Goddard said.
